Joshua: what messages do you respond with me: and TED girl dumped me because I was not sufficiently affectionate and interested in her Joshua: also, most girls are probably more overwhelmed with messages than you are - at least you would think Joshua: even though she was dating other guys Joshua: how much attention does one person need Joshua: ? me: Catalina seems to have resumed her romance/UFC match with black neurologist fellow me: that's what me: explained to her me: that she had said and done several things that disinclined me to be all "serious" me: My Self-Summary

The exquisite balance between the objective and subjective can be observed from a diminutive enzyme deep down in our inner most genus, all the way up to a scientist using illustrations to better understand her work. I find myself walking precariously upon dendrites that impersonate tight ropes as if I knew a god damn thing about balance. me: okay, I will allow you to work me: I'm just saying is all Joshua: what the hell is that Joshua: is that your my self-summary? me: from profile of a girl who likes me and abut whom I am understandably ambivalent Joshua: agreed - yeah...
Joshua: how old is she anyway me: 25 or something me: I'm not really going to puruse her me: I would meet her only if it was convenient, like at Union Pool or on my couch Joshua: word
Joshua: so, what's on the books for tomorrow mr brown? me: nothing 'tall me: so, I understand that I'll be spending at least a portion of next month at your residence me: perhaps you have heard of this development by means of the grapevine?
Joshua: not yet - when will that start? me: the first or thereabouts Joshua: are you guys moving or something Joshua: ? me: I guess John is in charge me: yep
Joshua: he hasn't talked to me ina few days for some reason me: and I'm going to be moving somewhere else eventually me: how odd Joshua: i c me: anyway, I'm relatively loaded, so I'll buy lots of groceries and liquor and whatnot Joshua: loaded for the winter me: while you work your fingers raw finding me an apartment Joshua: just like the ants me: lol j/k!1
Joshua: lolol me: IT IS MY RESPONSIBILITY Joshua: you'll manage me: so, I get your room on Mondays, Wednesdays, Saturdays... me: during which I will turn it into my rave chamber, hang plastic necklaces of marijuana plants and put in colored light bulbs....
Joshua: barrett?! me: on that uncontradicted and thus established and legally solid note, I should get back to work
